Victoria

Still thinking of Victoria as a sleepy little town with a sense of Old England? Think again!

Victoria is a city where the youthful energy of the West Coast blends with time-honoured British, European and Asian traditions. Victoria is an active city with a population that loves the outdoors. Naturally, with the Pacific Ocean right here, many of the most popular activities are marine based. Whale and wildlife watching is an exhilarating experience with expeditions ranging from high-speed zodiac tours to yacht and sailboat cruises.

And wine-touring - who knew? The area around Victoria and southern Vancouver Island embraces no less that 35 wineries (and 2 cideries!), producing award winning wines. Victoria is also home to many craft breweries and the culinary scene includes local produce, organic meats, ocean-fresh seafood and gourmet delicacies. Victoria offers a feast of unique, delicious experiences.

In addition to exploring numerous art galleries and museums, visitors should make time for the unique shopping experiences to be had, browsing through colourful heritage buildings and discovering fresh and hip offerings from local designers.

Experience Victoria and be rejuvenated by fresh ocean air and inspired by the warm island welcome and year- round beauty.
