Banff & Lake Louise

Experience The World's Finest National Park

Banff National Park is a rare destination that allows people to connect with nature on a grand scale. It's a massive protected wilderness that offers intimate access to natural beauty, wildlife and even a few wildflowers, yet provides a wide range of hotel choices, tasty regional cuisine, unique shopping, and diverse nightlife.

Take a coach tour or a self-drive package and the journey virtually plans itself. There are clear lakes to discover, some fed by glaciers that you can canoe on, others teeming with fish and colourful stories told by local experts. Ride a gondola to a mountain top and get a bird's eye view of white-tipped peaks that stretch across the horizon.

The drive on The Icefield's Parkway – known as one of the top scenic road trips in the world – travels past massive hanging glaciers, broad sweeping valleys, sheer rock walls and jaw-dropping scenic viewpoints. Rumble over an ancient glacier on the Icefields Explorer, a specialty vehicle equipped with enormous tires and an on-board interpreter.

Stroll through Banff and Lake Louise and check out art shops, the latest sports equipment and quality clothing stores. Sip on a coffee at a local bakery or lunch in a sunny sidewalk café and meet a few local residents, who can be counted on to recommend a favourite steakhouse, pub with live music or simply a local walking trail.

Banff National Park is the finest destination in the world, with magnificent natural beauty, exciting outdoor adventures, ski, golf, world-class dining, hotels and awe-inspiring attractions. Wildlife roam through the forested valleys under snow-capped mountains, pure water flows from ancient glaciers into streams and lakes and the two small communities of Banff and Lake Louise have been welcoming international visitors for well over 100 years.
