Cook Islands

Offering a holiday experience like no other Pacific island can - just 9 ½ hours from North America, the Cook Islands are laidback, casual and has one of the friendliest cultures on earth.

You can elect to be part of the community with its love of good food, outdoor activity, music and sports, or you can switch off from the world and enjoy your own company, far from the stress of modern life.

When you are in the Cook Islands, you'll be enchanted by its stunning beauty, from the dramatic mountains of Rarotonga to the turquoise lagoons of Aitutaki, with water the colour of liquid jewels and beaches which boast the whitest sand.

Luxuriate in your own private space or dive into the lagoon to see the spectacular underwater world that awaits, knowing that you'll never have to contend with the usual crowds or trappings of other tourist destinations.

You will find the hospitality warm and spontaneous, the music and dancing exuberant, and the mood laid back and relaxed. In the Cook Islands you really can live differently for a moment in time.
