

EDMONTON

Edmonton, Canada's festival city welcomes visitors year round with thriving arts and festivals including the internationally renowned folk music and street performers' festivals. Plus, Edmonton is host one of the world's largest international Fringe Festivals – and the largest in North America, attracting over 500,000 visitors each year. Nestled into the curves of the North Saskatchewan River, the capital of Alberta is a lively metropolis with sensational night

North America's largest stretch of urban parkland, Edmonton's River Valley, offers a huge natural space anyone can access. And just outside Edmonton is Kalyna Country - three times the size of Prince Edward Island, it is Canada's largest eco-museum, home to than 40 designated informal natural areas.

Edmonton regularly hosts major international athletics competitions and sporting events in track & field, curling, soccer, rugby and more – including the Canadian Finals Rodeo and the Rexall Edmonton Indy. Edmonton is also home to Alberta's #1 attraction: West Edmonton Mall, the greatest indoor show on earth.

History and the arts - and a dash of northerly spirit - have combined to create this cosmopolitan centre - a place where creativity thrives, culture is celebrated and nature embraced. Edmonton was named the Cultural Capital of Canada for 2007.
