

Banff & Lake Louise

Two small communities called Banff and Lake Louise offer a thriving arts and live music scene, luxurious spas, gourmet food and wine, provocative shopping, and accommodations ranging from a cozy cabin in the woods and a friendly bed and breakfast, to boutique hotels and five-star resorts. Festivals range all summer, from Canada Day parties and food and wine events to Dragon Boat racing and the 2010 Banff Summer Arts Festival.

You can step outside your comfort zone with an extraordinary adventure - from relaxing experiences in a scenic wilderness setting, to adrenaline pumping thrills. Catch a gondola ride up to the top of a mountain to gain a bird's eye view of the surrounding peaks, or go low and slow with a relaxing canoe ride on a turquoise-blue alpine lake.

Visit Lake Minnewanka where you can sign up for an interpretive boat trip or just take a stroll down one of the well-marked trails that leave from the lakeshore. The Icefields Parkway north of Lake Louise has been called one of the most spectacular scenic drives in the world, with cascading waterfalls and hanging glaciers explained through interpretive panels along the way.

In Banff National Park you'll rekindle your natural spirit in endless wilderness with space to yourself, sublime silences, protected wildlife and Rocky Mountains. It may just rock your world.

What is Banff 125?

Banff 125 is a celebration of Canada's first National Park, Banff National Park. The Celebration will be happening throughout Banff National Park from May - November 2010 and will include the town of Banff, Hamlet of Lake Louise and all Parks Canada campsites and venues. Our vision is to connect with all Canadians and provide experiences that encourage visitors to enjoy this special place which is "Banff National Park".

Why is Banff 125 this important.....

It is important to remember that 125 years ago so very forward thinking Canadians not only preserved this very important area of Canada that would go on to become a UNESCO World Heritage Site, but, to assure that many generations to come would see this beautiful land preserved forever. The goal of Banff 125 is to allow all visitors to Banff National Park to leave with a new awareness of Canada's first National Park, to visit the Park and connect with this special place and support the legacy of Banff National Park by proudly engaging with nature, beauty and activities that have been organized to celebrate this special occasion. Also, 2011 will mark the 100 Anniversary of Parks Canada and this celebration will lead into another this important anniversary.
