

ANDERSON VACATIONS NAMED TO THE PROFIT 100 FASTEST GROWING COMPANY LIST FOR SECOND YEAR IN A ROW BY APPRECIATING AGENTS!

Even in these times of economic adversity Anderson Vacation's continues to thrive thanks in large part to the continued support of the travel agent community. A large of Anderson Vacation's business comes from travel agents referrals and continued bookings of their product. Without the support of the agents Anderson would not be able to continue this rate of growth. That is why Anderson Vacations is committed to ensuring they do not have to cut agents' commissions. Paying commissions to the agents for the fantastic work they do is a top priority on Anderson's list and they will strive to always make sure agent's benefit from their partnership with Anderson Vacations.

Being named 157th on Canada's NEXT 100 list for a second year running is a great achievement but with a growth rate of 475% in just five years it is not unexpected. Especially in turbulent times such as these, but due to their diversified product, loyal travel agents and a dedicated staff Anderson Vacations is able to continue this growth and fare well in times when other are failing.

Corey Marshall CEO/President of Anderson Vacations states that ""Anderson recognizes that the great achievement would not be possible without the tremendous support of our retail travel agent partners. We feel that this relationship will continue to take our company to new heights, and as such will remain true to our promise of offering good commission rates on all products, guaranteed commission protection program, and ensuring that our agent clients receive their commissions within 14 days of departure. In the spirit of mutual partnership, our goal will be to crack the top 100 next year!"

Making that top 100 may just be possible with all the new products and services Anderson has added to their repertoire. Anderson's Vacations new Downunder product was released in September of 2008 and features travel to Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific. The South Pacific product is available for escorted, FIT and group passengers, and Anderson has also opened their own Air Desk selling fares with Air New Zealand, Qantas and Air Pacific. Recently added as well is the corporate product which caters to one day or multi day team building activities for businesses. FIT Canada offers product from coast to coast and up in the Canadian north as well, with products to suit every traveler whether they be budget, families or honeymooners. Want to experience the Wild West? Anderson can do that as well with a wide range of ranch product for everyone from beginners wanting to spend some time in the saddle to experienced riders wanting to actually help out at a working ranch.
