Visit Atlantic Canada!

Prince Edward Island is Canada's smallest and greenest province. Cradled on the waves of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, the Island is known for the vivid colours of its gently rolling landscape. Prince Edward Island is surrounded by miles of sandy beaches and red sandstone cliffs and is sized just right for touring.

New Brunswick is truly a must-see destination offering a world of natural wonders, vibrant cities and towns and unique activities to explore. Here, the world's highest tides rise and fall the height of a four-storey building, twice a day, every day. That's just the beginning of the wonder waiting in New Brunswick ...a place where rivers stretch from breathtaking all the way to beautiful. Where you will be fascinated by the fragile beauty of coastal dunes...or inspired by the Appalachians, some of the oldest mountains on the planet! Winter, Spring, Summer or Fall, adventure is always in season here in New Brunswick.

Nova Scotia is Canada's ocean playground. A place shaped by the sea, with a way of life shaped by four founding cultures whose love of a good time is legendary. A place where the music is unforgettable, the scenery incomparable and the food fantastic. Take a leisurely stroll along the pristine white beaches on the South Shore, the signature red sands along the Northumberland Shores or along one of the quintessentially Nova Scotian cobblestone beaches. Explore Peggy's Cove, Nova Scotia's most photographed fishing village, and while you're there, admire the massive granite boulders and send a postcard from Canada's only post office in a lighthouse.

Newfoundland and Labrador is Rich with history. Rife with culture. Sprawling with natural beauty. All these wonders have been here for thousands of years, embraced by those who happened upon them. It's up to the traveler to enjoy them, to go vigorously in search of people, adventures, and places to experience. Around every bend you will find a piece of heaven, a delightful sight, a playful breeze that will help your journey.
