

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ANDERSON VACATIONS WELCOMES NEW CUSTOM GROUP MANAGER BRENDA EGGETT

Anderson Vacations is pleased to announce a new staff member to their office team. Brenda Eggett has joined Anderson Vacations as the new Custom Group Manager as of November 2nd.

With 25 years of experience in the travel and tourism industry including long term stints with Princess Cruises and Grand Circle, Brenda will be a great asset to the team. She will be planning and running all of Anderson Vacations custom group tours, as well as the Alaska Yukon, Canadian Rockies and Eastern Canada Series.

Corey Marshall President/CEO is "excited and pleased to find an employee of Brenda's caliber to fill the position. I have no doubt that our operator and agent partners will find their experience with Brenda and her team of great value to assist in their Canadian Custom Group Vacation planning."

Having worked for a number of major companies previous to coming to Anderson Brenda is familiar with the details of planning and executing a tour. She also helped to plan and implement a nationally recognized customer service plan. Brenda enjoys public speaking and is skilled presenter having been part of the Toastmasters Club for many years.

Everyone at Anderson Vacations is excited to welcome Brenda to the team at their annual staff retreat this November.
