Spotlight On Alberta...

Everyone knows that Alberta is famous for its Rocky Mountains, but not as many know about the exciting urban centers of Calgary and Edmonton.

Calgary: Heart of the New West and home to the Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth, the Calgary Stampede. This city holds on to its western roots while maintaining a lively and urban atmosphere. Explore some of the city's attractions including the Calgary Zoo, Fort Calgary and Canada Olympic Park, or fly fish in the Bow River, right in the heart of the city. North of Calgary on the Queen Elizabeth # 2 Highway is Edmonton, Alberta's capital. Edmonton is known as Canada's "Festival City", hosting Music, Food/Dinning, Multicultural, Special event Festivals year round. The world-famous West Edmonton Mall is located here, which spans almost 48 city blocks and includes more than 800 shops and services, including an indoor waterpark!

Come and experience the excitement in Alberta's urban centers.
