Calgary
Heart of the New West

Nestled in the foothills of Canada's Rocky Mountains, Calgary, Heart of the New West is a place where visitors come to explore the heritage of the Canadian West. This safe, clean and vibrant city offers the best of all worlds: a cosmopolitan city of over 1 million people and breathtaking outdoor adventure in pristine wilderness.

Best known for the world-famous Calgary Stampede, the Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth, Calgary offers much more excitement for all kinds of visitors. To the west of the city you will find the Canadian Rockies, to the east the badlands and hoodoos, to the south rich aboriginal culture and history and to the north the rolling prairie landscapes. These magnificent settings are all just one hour's drive from Calgary's city centre.

Come discover Calgary, Heart of the New West™, then move beyond Calgary to the diverse regions of Alberta.
