DON'T FORGET TO CONTACT OUR SOUTH PACIFIC AIR DESK FOR YOUR NEXT QUOTE

In an unprecedented move Anderson Vacations has launched their second Downunder Brochure with rates and products valid until April 2011. This brochure gives clientele a chance to plan their trip well in advance with an array of product choices to suit every traveler's needs. This brochure will cover product ranging from short city stays, to caravanning around New Zealand, or spending time getting to know fellow travelers on one of many escorted tours. With endless destinations, activities and products your imagination is the only limit.

Another exciting addition to the Anderson Vacations' business model is their competitive airline contracts. This means that Anderson Vacations is ready to sell air too! Through contractual agreements with major airlines servicing the South Pacific including Air Pacific, Air New Zealand and Qantas, clients are guaranteed the best deal on air. Downunder service is not limited to flights into major cities in Australia and New Zealand. Anderson can provide service to Tahiti, Fiji, the Cook Islands, Hawaii, and other small or out of the way destinations such as French Polynesia, Samoa & Tonga. This is a definite benefit to travelers wanting to get off the beaten path. Anderson's highly qualified air specialists are just a phone call away.

When it comes to land packages, this new brochure offers a trip for every type of customer. If clients don't see their ideal holiday package, Anderson will customize a trip to meet their specifications. Anderson offers independent, group and escorted travel packages to every destination from Sydney and Cairns to Auckland, Rotorua, and the Outback; not to mention a wide variety of South Pacific Island product suitable for everyone from honeymooners wanting a secluded romantic getaway, to families looking to have fun in the sun.
